

DONCASTER & DISTRICTS NETBALL ASSOCIATION INC.

Photographic & Video Consent Form 2020

Dear Parents & Players,

Doncaster & Districts Netball Association Inc. (DDNA) seeks permission from the parents/guardians of children under the age of 18, or from players who are over the age of 18 (senior players), participating in any of the DDNA Representative Teams or All Abilities teams, to take and use photographs or video of their children or the senior player or the teams they play in, whilst representing DDNA in any of the competitions or training to use for the following purposes:

- Newsletters (which may be published in hard copy or electronically to be viewed or downloaded from the website);
- Promotional posters/pamphlets, media articles to promote the Association and Representative Teams; and
- Application for grants where the requirement is to submit photos/videos as part of the application procedure.

Please note: Aside from the picture and/or video itself, the Association will not disclose any personal information about any players in any photograph or video taken by the Association unless the Association has obtained the prior consent from the parent/guardian of the child or senior player in the photograph or video. The Association will seek your consent in each instance, as required.
